My crafted prayer:

Lord, Thank you that you have called me by my name and I am yours! I belong to you and I do not have to fear because you are with me. You have promised to strengthen my soul towards difficulty. You have made my spirit a well-watered garden so that I may go out and be a repairer of broken walls; you restoring the broken through me for you. Your spirit rests on me to bind up the broken hearted and proclaim release and freedom to the prisoners from darkness. My feet are strong; you have enabled me to climb the rocky heights. And, there is NO condemnation in you because my mind is set on your Spirit which is LIFE and PEACE. The holy spirit groans for me and Jesus sits on his throne interceding for me. I am so grateful I serve a high priest who fully understands all of my ways, and still loves me. YOU, oh Lord, are the perfecter of my faith, you are authoring my journey to bring me into full maturity. I honor and worship you with all that I am. Love, Alycia Belief Statement: Do you agree with all of these statements? Why or why not?

We believe in what orthodox Christians have believed for centuries: the Apostles Creed and all the important doctrines. (The "main" and the "plain.")

- The Old and New Testaments are the inerrant Word of God and given to us for teaching, correction, rebuke and training in righteousness (2 Tim. 3:16).
- The Father, Son and Holy Spirit are one God, three persons, co-eternal, omnipotent, omniscient, and omnipresent (Eph. 1, John 8).
- Jesus the Messiah was born of the Virgin Mary and lived as a man (Matt. 1).
Salvation is by grace through faith in the atoning work of Messiah Jesus on the cross (Eph. 2:8-10, John 3:16).
- Jesus was raised from the dead physically. (Matt. 28).
- The Church universal, the Body of Christ, is made up of all believers throughout the Earth, with local expressions (Acts, 1 Cor. 12).
- The Holy Spirit works actively to empower believers for witness, ministry and supernatural works (Acts, 1 Cor. 12).
- Jesus will return to Earth in bodily form (Acts 1:11).
- Unbelievers will be judged and consigned to hell (John 3:16, Rev. 20:11-15).
- Believers will reign with Christ and enjoy heaven (Rev. 5:9-10, 21
